

ENSEMBLE LAUDE

SINGS FOR THE RAINBOW KITCHEN

A MUSICAL FEAST ON SEPTEMBER 10

Ensemble Laude, directed by Elizabeth MacIsaac, is a women's community choir dedicated to singing medieval, multicultural choral repertoire and early music.

Ensemble Laude was chosen "Favourite Vocal Ensemble" in Monday Magazine's 2010 and 2011 annual M Awards.

Victoria Rainbow Kitchen is a non-profit society which provides nutritious meals and fellowship throughout the year for those in need as an expression of faith, philosophy or secular commitment. It creates a safe and comfortable environment which enables the building of relationships, community spirit and support networks. It relies on donations of foodstuffs from local business and on generous cash donations from people in Greater Victoria.
